About the Institute :

V.P.M.'s Polytechnic, Thane was established in the year 1983 by Vidya Prasarak Mandal(VPM), Thane a Public Education Trust and subsequently recognised by AICTE, New Delhi.

The institute has made a phenomenal growth in past two and a half decades. The institute offers seven diploma courses in Chemical Engineering, Computer Engineering, Electrical Power Systems, Industrial Electronics, Information Technology, Instrumentation and Medical Electronics. The polytechnic has contributed to the development of curriculum and learning resources under the Maharashtra State Board of Technical Education- Institute Partnership Project.

As part of dissemination of knowledge and manpower training, the institute has played a key role in organizing seminars, workshops, short term courses & national conferences.

Achievement of academic excellence, sharing of scientific and technological knowledge, imparting technical skills to the student community and induction of social awareness among youth, constitute the objectives of the institute.

In its constant endeavor to impart Quality Technical Education, V.P.M.'s Polytechnic, Thane, is privileged to be the first accredited (awaiting renewal), unaided Polytechnic which has been adjudged as the winner of ISTE-Narsee Monjee Award for Polytechnic having 'Best Overall Performance' in Maharashtra state for the year 2009.
